

Project Description

---

Client: Joy, McCoola & Zilch, Architects

Project: Orange County Community College Facilities Master Plan

Services Performed:

While with another firm, James Kent, AICP, in association with Joy, McCoola & Zilch, Architects, prepared a facilities master plan for Orange County Community College. Mr. Kent's responsibilities included the oversight of a comprehensive existing conditions assessment, a comprehensive redesign of the campus including expanded parking, improved pedestrian circulation, closure of a public street that had bisected the campus, handicapped access, and quadrangle improvements. Total proposed improvements exceeded $34 million.